

Membership application process

New applicants for membership of BAFRA need to complete a membership application form sign it and send it by post or electronically to the General Secretary. The appropriate forms will be issued by the Director of Recruitment or one of their team.

The precise process is as follows:

1. Applicant sends form either by post or electronically to the General Secretary (GS) along with the appropriate payment of £30 (or £15 for those only wishing to be 5-a-side members or £5 for those only wishing to become affiliate members) or has signed the declaration saying the money has been sent electronically to the BAFRA account. There is no payment required from those only applying for Restricted Overseas membership.
2. GS checks that:
 - i. the form has been completed fully - if not, GS refers back to applicant
 - ii. the correct payment accompanies the form or the appropriate declaration has been signed
 - iii. applicant is not on any blacklist (e.g. banned from the sport)
3. GS shares the application with the Membership Sub-Committee (GS and the President or another Director) and they decide whether the applicant meets the membership requirements
4. If there are no issues with the application, the application will be accepted - it is expected that the vast majority of applications will be accepted at this stage of the process
5. If the applicant does not meet the membership requirements or any issues arise (Regulations 1.11, 1.12, 1.13), the applicant will be rejected.
6. If an application is rejected, GS will inform the applicant and notify them of the appeals procedure (Regulation 1.12).
7. If the applicant appeals, GS sends the application plus a confidential report on the reasons for the original rejection and any further statement provided by the applicant to the Membership Appeals Sub-committee (the other directors) and they make the final decision.
8. If an application is rejected, any payment made will be refunded provided that any training material that has been issued is returned in good condition to the GS.
9. If/when an application is successful, GS will inform:
 - i. the applicant
 - ii. the Administration Team (so that access to the website can be provided)
 - iii. the Director of Training
 - iv. the Director of Recruitment
 - v. the Director of Finance
 - vi. the Game film lead (So that access to a game film sharing platform can be provided)
10. An applicant who is rejected (including after appeal), may apply again no sooner than 6 months after the submission of the original application.
11. Normally, applicants will be notified of the result of their application within 7 days. Appeal decisions will normally be notified within 14 days. Either may take longer if further information or checking is required, or key personnel are unavailable.
12. For people who have already completed a BAFRA approved course in 5-on-5 football and hold a BAFRA Certificate of Competency for those disciplines, it is possible to join BAFRA as a 5-on-5 only official.
